sending; an assignment or task to be carried out.” Even a cursory glance at the Great Commission exposes both nuances of this definition.

“Go ye into all the world...” Incredibly, each church of the living God is privileged to be the recipient of this imperative. From the neighbor next door, to the furthest reaches of the globe, Jesus established the boundaries of our responsibility as being without geographic limitation.

“...preach the gospel to every creature.” Jesus did not leave us clueless as to what we should do when those areas are reached. In an age of uncertainty, God’s churches are to insert the only message with certain power to change lives.

The things which cause us fear or anxiety are the very things that can only be changed through the power of the gospel. Whether it is the drug dealer encroaching deeper into rural America, the baby murderers who hide behind terms like “fetus” and “right to choose”, or terrorists who want to destroy our civilization and way of life, the power of the gospel is the only power that can turn sin-darkened hearts to the light that is Jesus Christ.

Until we who make up the bodies of Christ realize this truth and surrender our lives to the biblical imperative to “go”, and “preach”, we have no right to complain about deteriorating conditions that surround us.

May we as messengers of the churches encourage our respective churches to utilize the tools available to go and preach the gospel to every being under heaven.

MEN’S BROTHERHOOD REPORT

Most Americans have heard the slogan “looking for a few good men”. A similar call goes forth throughout the Lord’s churches. Which church among us could not use a few more “good men”? Today, more than ever, the Lord’s churches need good men who are willing to rise up to the call of duty.

The term "brotherhood" is used twice in the word of God-Zechariah 11:14, and 1 Peter 2:17. Both the Hebrew and Greek renderings of the word "brotherhood" denote the meaning of relationship. As saved men, we have a common relationship through the blood of Christ. As church men, we have a common relationship through church membership. In a local church, a Men's Brotherhood is built upon relationship.

1 Peter 2:17, a definite demand is placed upon us. The statement "Love the brotherhood" is a clear calling with a certain course. Our love for the brotherhood and others is predicated upon God's love for us. Christ declared, "A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another, as I have loved you, that ye also love one another." John 13:34. Following God's example will enable us to obey the command of God.

Brethren, every brother has a place of service within the Lord's Church. May our example serve as an encouragement for others to enlist.

Pleasant Oaks MBC

TEMPERANCE REPORT

1 Corinthians 9:25 says "And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible."

The word "temperate" as used here comes from a Greek word which means "to have strength, to exercise rigid self-control, as an athlete does in training for a contest". While they do it to win a corruptible prize, we are to do it to gain an incorruptible crown, the crown for the self-mastery of the body.

While most people see temperance as simply abstinence from alcohol, it is much more than that. Paul says that to achieve discussion in open session of the Messenger Assembly. After discussion, the proposed amendment may be withdrawn only by consent of a simple majority of the messengers voting. Otherwise, it must be referred to the churches of the Association. Each church may then vote for or against the proposed amendment, expressing said vote for or against in the associational letter to the next annual session of the messengers. In this matter, each church is entitled to one vote.

Red River-Bowie District Ladies' Auxiliary Articles of Agreement

ARTICLE I - Name

The name of this organization shall be the District Ladies' Auxiliary of the Red River-Bowie Association.

ARTICLE II - DEFINITION

This organization shall be composed of all the Auxiliaries of the churches of the Red River-Bowie Association.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

The purpose of this District Auxiliary shall be to further promote the Lord's work and encourage the women of each local church to be more active in all phases of the work in which they have the Scriptural right and responsibility to participate.

ARTICLE IV - TIME AND PLACE

Section 1: This District Auxiliary shall meet quarterly: the 1st Tuesday in the months of January, April, July, and October, or at such time most convenient for the host church.

Section 2: The place of the meeting shall be determined on a rotation basis, based on the alphabetical order of Auxiliaries.

Section 3: On this basis, the Auxiliary which is next in order must be present or send word that they desire to entertain the District Auxiliary, otherwise, the District Auxiliary will go to the next ecclesiastical end, but merely for benevolent purposes, but it reserves the right to withdraw from any church which becomes heterodox in faith to disorderly practice.

Section 2: This Association shall recognize freedom of speech as essential to the highest achievement of it's work.

ARTICLE V. OFFICERS

Section 1: The officers of this Association shall be a moderator, an assistant moderator, a clerk/treasurer, an assistant clerk/treasurer who shall be chosen by the messengers meeting in annual session, and shall hold office for one year, or until their successors are chosen.

Section 3: It shall be the duty of the clerk/treasurer to keep a correct record of each session of the messenger assembly and to have the same published and distributed to the churches as a report of the Association, to keep a correct record of all moneys received and disbursed, and to make report of the same to the Association during it's annual session.

ARTICLE VI. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

This Association may have an executive committee composed of one member from each church in the Association. Five members of said committee shall constitute a quorum. The moderator of the committee is to provide leadership and counsel in the carrying out the work outlined in the annual Messenger Assembly of the Association.

ARTICLE VII. AMENDMENT

Two-thirds of the churches of this Association must approve any change or amendment to the Constitution. The following procedure shall be followed in order to change or amend the Constitution. Any proposed amendment shall be presented for temperance he keeps under (buffets) his body to keep it under control. We all know that our bodies are in rebellion against our spirits so that we cannot do the things we would. (Romans 7:22-23). It then becomes our purpose to bring our bodies under the authority of the Word and the control of the Holy Spirit of God.

There is a danger in failing to be temperate. Paul says that "I keep under my body and bring it into subjection, lest by any means when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway." (I Corinthians 9:27). We all know those who have become a castaway in the work of God, because they let their physical bodies become dominant in gluttony, alcohol, drugs, the cares of this world, or through sexual lusts. We should recommend temperance to our people in all aspects of life, not just abstinence from alcoholic beverages.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION REPORT

Much time and money is spent on secular education, while too often Christian education takes a back seat! Unlike generations before us who had very little, or at most, only the basics to work with, we have so much to draw from and take advantage of. Our churches have the ability with the technology and resources available, to truly educate their people. We are blessed with literature from the Baptist Sunday School Committee that is second to none. The literature includes studies for Sunday School, the Discovery Program, Ladies groups, Men's studies, and books on many different subjects. There are more Bible Schools and Seminaries in our ABA work than at any other time in the history of our associated work. Texas Baptist Institute and Seminary has grown to be a premier institution, and has done a great job of preparing men to serve the Lord through his local churches as pastors, music leaders, and youth ministers.

However, it does not make any difference how much is available, if it is not utilized and taken advantage of, it will not benefit those in need. The world and our churches need to be educated with truth. The Lord's command to teach and educate the first century believer is as relevant today as it was two thousand years ago. Before he returned to the Father, our Lord told his church, "...All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen". (Matthew 28th 18-20).

This command has not been removed; in fact, as we see the approaching day of the Lord's return, it becomes more important to become involved and concerned in the educating of our people.

YOUTH REPORT

Work with youth is one of the most, if not the most important work a church can engage herself in. The importance of this work is so obvious when we begin to examine the statistics surrounding children, teens, and their involvement in churches today. It has been statistically proven that if a person is not saved before the age of 13, they are unlikely to ever be saved. (We know that many are saved after that age, but far more are saved before they reach the teenage years.) It is so important that we get the Gospel to children and teens while they are in these formative years.

Much of the problem with youth work is the same problem we have always dealt with. "We don't understand the kids of our day". We fifty-year old- and above cannot relate to children in this day and age. Many of us don't have a clue when it comes to reaching kids, because we don't understand where they are emotionally and mentally. It seems the older we get, the harder they are to understand.

For this reason, it is imperative that we take a new look at youth work; that we work desperately to understand how they think so we can reach them more effectively.

We have already missed too many generations. Look around you- in too many churches, younger adults and young people are not coming as frequently as in decades before. The rolls of the un-churched child and teen have dramatically increased, and the number of those who have never been in church is alarming.

May God give us the wisdom and grace to see the fields are white unto harvest. Jesus wants us to reach out to these little ones. May we not be so set in our ways that we are afraid of getting the timeless message of the gospel to a new generation with new and innovative methods.

If you have further questions about working with youth, or reaching youth in your community, may we recommend Bro. Robert Wallace, director of Youth Frame Works, Henderson, Texas, who is a consultant and trainer in this field. A book that is a must-read on this subject is: "Transforming Children into Spiritual Champions", by George Barna.

LADIES' AUXILIARY REPORT

Many Missionary Baptist Churches are blessed to have active Ladies' Auxiliaries as a part of their ministry. A Ladies' Auxiliary within a local church can be a great help in the teaching ministry, visitation, missions, benevolence, and many other areas of serving the Lord.

The combined Ladies' Auxiliaries are also a great blessing to our work. The District, State, and National Ladies' Auxiliary work offers an opportunity of Christian fellowship and encouragement, as well as doing a great mission work as they support various mission projects through the year.

The red River-Bowie Association Yearbook lists twenty-five churches, with twelve of these have Auxiliaries. (Hillcrest, Paris, organized one this past year.) If your church does not have an Auxiliary, you are encouraged to consider beginning one.

May God continue to bless the work of the ladies through the Auxiliaries of our churches.

ORPHAN'S HOME REPORT

The Texarkana Baptist Orphanage fills a very needed service in our world today. There are so many children that need a place to go and feel secure and loved. The orphanage not only fills this need, but also gives them a home with a Christian environment. The staff at the orphanage are dedicated not only to providing for the physical needs of the children, but also to the spiritual needs. The staff is dedicated to being Christian examples to the children and to answer any questions they might have about spiritual needs.

Texarkana Baptist Orphanage has been a vital mission work since it began in 1907. It is supported by funds received from the churches of the ABA. The children and staff at the home not only need our prayers, but our financial support.

AGED MINISTER'S REPORT (reprinted from 2004 minutes)

We thank the Lord for all of his beloved aged ministers. They have laid the foundations upon which many others have and are continuing to build. Their work of patience and labor of love is a testimony to the Lord they have so faithfully served. As these dear brethren reach the sunset of their lives, may the Lord's churches here in this association and abroad continue to encourage them in the Lord by providing them opportunities to share the gospel, by uplifting them in prayer, and by supporting them financially.

Let us be thankful to God for the blessings we have received and continue to enjoy for listening to, knowing, and fellowshiping with these soldiers of the cross of Jesus Christ! Romans 10:15b- "...as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"
