REPORTS SUBMITTED FOR 2008

MISSIONS REPORT

We have been given very clear instructions concerning the responsibility of every church to spread the Gospel to the entire world. In Matthew 28:19-20, Jesus said, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

Amen.” Before his ascension, Jesus gave these final words regarding the role and responsibility of a church when he said, “But ye shall receive power, after the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.” Acts 1:8.

Considering the times in which we live, let us redouble our efforts to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ, utilizing every means available to send out the good news. Join us as we pray for missionaries and churches who send them, pray for God to send more laborers into the field, and pray for a great harvest of souls at home and worldwide.

MEN'S BROTHERHOOD REPORT

The work of men in the Lord's Churches is very well illustrated in God's word.

When our Lord chose His disciples he selected men from various walks of life. From those who followed him, he selected twelve. It was evident that these men were to be given special instructions for the work that they were to do. This training covers a period of approximately three years. This could very well be called the first Brotherhood. Later, there were seventy others who also were trained by our Lord for his service. As it was important to have trained workers in the first church, it is no less necessary today.

From a scriptural standpoint, men are required to take the lead in the Lord's work. There should be an emphasis on our concern about proper preparation for responsible leadership in the development of biblical truths.

We can call a men's meeting a Brotherhood, “All the King's

TEMPERANCE REPORT

The Bible tells us in II Peter 1:5-7, beginning with faith we should add virtue, knowledge, "and to knowledge temperance, and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity". Webster's dictionary defines temperance as, "moderation in action, thought or feeling; restraint; habitual moderation in the indulgence of appetites or passions". Self-control is choosing and deciding in our hearts and minds whom we are going to obey.

As sinners saved by grace, we struggle daily with the pressures of this world. Will we obey the Lord and do his will, or do we succumb to the pleasures of sin? Proverbs 16:32 tells us, "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city". Also, Proverbs 25:28 says "He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls". Too often temperance is only associated with abstaining from alcohol. May all who are saved by the blood of Jesus Christ endeavor to practice restraint in every area of our lives lest we bring reproach upon the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION REPORT

II Timothy tells us that "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." Christian education helps to spread the Word of God and accomplish the standards set forth in those verses.

Therefore, all churches must see the need of educating today's adult, young adult, and youth in the teachings of the Bible.

While the principles that are taught today are the same that Christ set forth during his public ministry, many of the methods of teaching have drastically changed. All churches are challenged to encourage their teachers to use methods such as small group discussion, visual aid stories, PowerPoint, music, drama, and any other method that is scriptural.

With more people obtaining college education than ever before, we must not only teach our people what we believe, but why we believe a certain doctrine. The members of our churches need to be equipped to stand against the false teachings of evolution, post-modernism, humanism, ecumenism, etc., so that others might see the truth of God exhibited by our churches.

Christ spent three years with his disciples teaching them, reproving them, admonishing them, and encouraging them, in order that they might be able to teach others the truths of God and spread the Word of God. Are we to do less? It is advantageous for us to use ministries such as Sunday School, Bible study courses, Vacation Bible School, Wednesday night programs, small group meetings, and even the Internet to teach the milk and the meat of the word.

Finally, with the need of more pastors, we need to support seminaries such as Texas Baptist Institute and Seminary. Our churches need God-called men who have been trained so that they may teach others. Thus it is essential that we continue to support our seminaries and their great work for the Lord.

YOUTH REPORT

Youth work many times is viewed as an auxiliary work of the church, but in reality, youth work is key to Great Commission work of a church. There are some points that we need to keep in mind with youth work as it relates to Great Commission work.

Youth work is fertile ground for soul winning. Study after study shows us what the Bible teaches us, "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth..." Ecc. 12:1. After about age 13 people become more and more unlikely to be saved. The percent of people saved after age 18 is very low. Wisdom then calls upon us, if we want to win souls, to do youth work, reaching out to young people when they are most likely to be saved.

Youth work is great for doing the Great Commission work of training. Children and teens are in the most moldable time of their lives. Learning things and skills come naturally for them. Youth work should train soldiers for the cross: that is, how to do all the work of a church. If taught only to sit and listen and do nothing else, that is all they will ever do.

Youth work advances the gospel into another generation and into the world. We must never forget that a church is one generation from death. We, many times, complain that the youth grow up and leave. The truth is, most will leave their home church, heading out into the world, but what a wonderful spread of the gospel if they take it with them, sharing it with the world as they go.

LADIES' AUXILIARY REPORT

Women in the Lord's Churches have always played a vital role in the ministry of their church. Many of our churches have organized Ladies' Auxiliaries to provide an organization for the ladies to serve the Lord in. The Ladies' Auxiliary is a helper of the church. The functions of an active auxiliary can be of great benefit to any church and pastor. The ladies study the Bible together in order to help each of them be the woman that God would have them to be. This will make our homes and our churches strong. The ladies pray for their church and the lost in their communities. They hand out tracts, and support missionaries with prayers and financial assistance. We are very thankful to the Lord for faithful ladies who are faithful to the Lord and to the church of their membership.

AGED MINISTER'S REPORT

The Bible says in I Corinthians 4:2, "Moreover it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful". Preachers are men who are called of God to faithfully impart the words of life to all men. The words of life are found in God's written word, the Bible. Men of God serve the Lord often times in the office of pastor in one of the Lord's blood-bought local, New Testament churches. Pastors spend a lifetime praying, studying, preaching, and teaching the word of God. As the pastor ages, the natural course of life comes, and he is not able to do what he once did. This is an opportunity for the church to remember those men who faithfully stood before them for so many years.

Churches are to pray for the aged ministers of our associated work. They prayed for us faithfully, and now it is the church's turn to lift them up before the Lord.

Churches can provide for the aged ministers as well. May we remember our aged ministers in time of need and hospitalization. May we provide and show brotherly kindness with phone calls and food poundings. Even love offerings are a way to provide for them as many aged ministers are now on a fixed income.

May churches put the aged minister in their membership to use by allowing them to fill in for the vacationing pastor or to teach a Sunday School class. It would be a shame for churches to not draw upon the aged minister's vast knowledge and life situations. Even though men may "retire" from active ministry, the Lord is not through with his God-called men until He calls them home to glory. May we always remember the aged ministers.

TEXAS MISSION BUILDERS REPORT

It has long been known and appreciated by the Missionary Baptist Churches of the State of Texas what a blessing the Texas Mission Builders Ministry is. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been saved by this wonderful building ministry. Bro. Leroy Smith, and a host of volunteer workers have made this work one of the most efficient and needed ministries for the past several years.

As of their most recent report, The TMB has been working on projects in Spring, Texas, and Cleveland, Texas.

Due to the purchase of much-needed large equipment, and the high cost of fuel, a plea was recently issued by Bro. Darrel Owens, Board of Directors of TMB, for the churches to consider either sending a one-time special offering, or increasing their regular support to meet these needs. In recent years, several churches of our local association have been the recipient of the work and expertise of this fine ministry.

The messengers of the churches of the Red River-Bowie Missionary Baptist Association express their thanks, support, and prayers for this very worthwhile work.
